

BEFORE THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

RESOLUTION #2022-01

IN THE MATTER OF TEMPORARY APPOINTMENT OF A DESIGNATED CRISIS RESPONDER

WHEREAS, a temporary need for a Designated Crisis Responder has arisen in Columbia County for one individual (“J.S.”) and case wherein a danger to the safety of that individual may exist; and,

WHEREAS, Columbia County is currently in negotiations to replace the current Designated Crisis Responder; and,

WHEREAS, Columbia County is empowered by Chapter 71.05 RCW to appoint Designated Crisis Responders to provide services to the County outlined therein; and,

WHEREAS, Dr. K. Todd Carman-Wagner, Ph.D. is qualified under the requirements of RCW 71.05.760; and,

WHEREAS, Dr. K. Todd Carman-Wagner, Ph.D. is ready, able, and willing to serve as a Designated Crisis Responder for the current need, and has prior knowledge and experience with the individual requiring crisis response; and,

WHEREAS, the Board of County Commissioners finds and determines that entering into an agreement with K. Todd Carman-Wagner, Ph.D. for the instant matter is in the best interest of the residents of the Columbia County and will promote the general health, safety and welfare;

IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED BY THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS that:

K. TODD CARMAN-WAGNER, Ph.D. is hereby appointed as a Designated Crisis Responder to evaluate and make recommendations as to the case of J.S. only, and shall remain so appointed until evaluation and recommendations regarding the well-being and care of J.S. have been completed. K. Todd Carman-Wagner, Ph.D. is also authorized to take any necessary actions to execute his recommendations in this matter. The attached “Agreement for S

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Prosecuting Attorney’s Office shall be responsible for the payment of the agreed-upon compensation for this appointment.

PASSED AND ADOPTED by the Columbia County Board of Commissioners, State of Washington, on this 3rd day of January, 2022.
